SCHOOL NEWS

BOOK WEEK

During "Book Week," our fifth graders became reading coaches for first graders, sharing the magic of books. They read stories together outdoors, creating a peaceful and fun experience.

This activity not only made reading exciting but also built strong bonds and mentorship in our school community.

SCHOOL NEWS

During "Book Week," parents visited our school to read stories aloud to us. It was so much fun! These reading sessions made us love books even more.

The pictures show students listening closely to the exciting stories our parents read. It was a great example of how our community can help us learn and enjoy reading together.

FEATURED PROJECT

CUP PHONE

Before winter break, 3rd graders made telephones with plastic cups and string! 🥤🎵 They poked holes in the cups, threaded the string through, and tied knots. When one spoke into a cup, the sound traveled through the string to the other cup! 🤯🌟

They learned that sound travels better when the string is tight. Tomás Vial and Benjamín Ebensperger shared secrets, and Andrés LeBlanc used a super long string across the room!

Try it at home!

- You Will Need:
- 2 Plastic Cups 🥤🥤
- 1 Long String 🧵 about 3-6 feet (1-2 meters) long.
- 1 Pair of Scissors ✂️ to cut the string.
- 1 Pencil or Pen 🖋️ To poke holes in the cups.

Santuario Padre
Alberto Hurtado
May 23rd, 2024

Our third graders recently visited the "Planetario de Santiago", learning about astronomy and planetary care through an impressive tour of the solar system.

They also explored the "Santuario Padre Alberto Hurtado", discovering Saint Alberto Hurtado's dedication to helping others, which highlighted the values of empathy and community service.

This trip beautifully combined science and social lessons, inspiring the students with new knowledge and values.
